NATIONAL FRAME BUILDING ASSOCIATION SELECTS ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT CENTER FOR FULL-SERVICE MANAGEMENT

Glenview, IL—The National Frame Building Association (NFBA) has selected Association Management Center (AMC) for full-service management. NFBA will relocate their association headquarters to Glenview, IL on September 1, 2009.

NFBA represents post-frame construction, manufacturing, and marketing companies, as well as code and design professionals and is the only trade association representing the interests of the post-frame construction industry throughout the United States. NFBA was established in 1969.

John Hill, NFBA Board Chair comments, "Post-frame buildings are cost effective, energy efficient building solutions. The NFBA looks forward to working with AMC to increase awareness of the benefits of post-frame construction."

Mark Engle, CAE, AMC Principal, comments, "We are excited to work with NFBA leadership and members on their many strategic initiatives. We have a great team in place that will help contribute to NFBA's future success. NFBA will be a nice complement to AMC's other trade association clients—especially those in the construction marketplace."

Tom Drake, CAE, will serve as the executive director of NFBA. Drake has over 15 years of experience in nonprofit management.

Association Management Center has been passionate about helping associations achieve what you believe for over 35 years. AMC (www.connect2amc.com) is a trusted partner to 25 leading national and international organizations and has a staff of more than 180 association professionals. AMC provides strategic guidance to boards and volunteers and oversees day-to-day operations making it possible for its association partners to achieve their goals.
