AGENTIS' CZUHAJEWSKI EARNS CERTIFIED ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE CREDENTIAL

(Lexington, KY)—Agentis Management, Inc., an innovative, outcome-focused association management firm, is pleased to announce that its president & CEO, Stephanie Czuhajewski, has earned the CAE credential, the highest professional credential in the association industry.

"My commitment to professional excellence is driven by my passion for association management and the organizations that I serve," said Czuhajewski.

To be designated as a Certified Association Executive, an applicant must have a minimum of three years experience in nonprofit organization management, complete a minimum of 100 hours of specialized professional development, pass a stringent examination in association management and pledge to uphold a code of ethics. To maintain the certification, individuals must undertake ongoing professional development and activities in association and nonprofit management. More than 3,900 association professionals currently hold the CAE credential. The CAE program is accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA). Less than five percent of all association professionals have earned the CAE.
