ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT CENTER APPOINTS
NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Glenview, IL—Association Management Center (AMC) is pleased to announce that John Ozga, CPA MBA, has accepted the position of chief financial officer. Ozga will assume his new role at AMC on November 19, 2007.

AMC Principal Scott Engle comments, "We are delighted to have John on board. His adeptness at problem solving, implementing solutions, and measuring results has contributed to his strong track record for helping companies grow."

Ozga joins AMC from the for-profit business sector, most recently at Durham School Services. John holds a master's in business administration in finance from DePaul University. He is a member of Illinois CPA Society and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Association Management Center has been the respected leader in association management for over 30 years. AMC (www.connect2amc.com) is a trusted partner to 25 leading national and international organizations and has a staff of more than 170 association professionals. AMC provides strategic guidance to boards and volunteers and oversees day-to-day operations, making it possible for its association partners to achieve their goals.
