Association of Donor Relations Professionals retains SBI Management Services.

Association of Donor Relations Professionals (ADRP), has hired SBI Management Services of Seattle, Washington to provide operational and executive management services. ADRP supports the development community by promoting the professional status of donor relations and stewardship offices through educational, professional development and networking opportunities.

Nancy Lubich McKinney, President of ADRP announced the new relationship with SBI saying, “Our organization has experienced tremendous growth since our incorporation in 2004. We now have more than 900 members throughout North America and we continue to grow. The board has worked very hard this year to position ADRP as the leader in professional development for donor relations and stewardship professionals. Now it is time to sustain our growth with a strong, unified association management service. We selected the best organization for our needs, SBI Management Services.”

Ms. Lubich McKinney made the announcement at the 8th Annual ADRP International Conference in New Orleans.

SBI is known for providing efficient and responsive nonprofit association management services which include executive and administrative support, financial management, meeting management, marketing, communications and membership services. Marlis Korber, President of SBI stated, “It is an honor to be selected to provide management services to ADRP. We look forward to growing with such an outstanding organization.”
